LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thanks to your support, Friends of the Smokies has fulfilled its fundraising mission for the park every year since it was founded in 1993. That means that every item on the park's annual needs list has been funded for the last twenty-two years. The year-long Centennial celebration of the National Park Service made the Smokies "top of mind" for people all across the country; this was reflected in the record-breaking 11+ million visitors to our national park.

In 2016 we provided $1.5 million for park needs which included both annual support and matching gifts for the Kathryn McNeil Education Endowment Fund to hire a full-time teacher for the Appalachian Highlands Science Learning Center at Purchase Knob. Other highlights include $254,100 Trails Forever funding to complete the Alum Cave Trail improvements, $161,568 for Parks as Classrooms, and $111,700 in resource management and science projects including the Collections Preservation Center, wildlife management, and hemlock protection. With your help, our park is a more welcoming place, and is better equipped to tell the natural and cultural resource stories that make it one of America's great natural treasures.

With the National Park Service celebration of its 100th anniversary in 2016 creating a unique opportunity for a strong fundraising year, Friends was headed for a great finish as the fourth quarter began - at that point none of us could have imagined the magnitude of the tragic events that would occur on November 28th. Even today it is difficult to comprehend the scope of the wildfire that ravaged the area.

But as so often happens in our country there has been an inspiring counterpoint to the devastation and that is the response of thousands of caring and generous people who want to help the park recover from the damages it has experienced. Friends of the Smokies has already received or has commitments for more than $710,000 in support of fire relief within the park boundaries.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of Friends of the Smokies, I want to thank you for your remarkable support for Great Smoky Mountains National Park and your commitment to its preservation and protection. In addition to your generosity, we appreciate your calls of concern, and your words of support both in writing, via email, and online through your social media posts and comments. Perhaps more than ever before, 2016 showed us how many Friends of the Smokies our park has, from across the country and around the world.

LETTER FROM SUPERINTENDENT CASSIUS CASH

Dear Friends,

In 2016, we asked you to join us on a journey to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the National Park Service by spending time in your parks. And you did! We had a record 11.3 million visitors to Great Smoky Mountains National Park. We also asked people to discover the backcountry by hiking 100 miles in honor of the NPS Centennial. I was amazed that over 2,000 people met or exceeded the challenge! My personal journey in hiking 100 miles was truly one of the most rewarding experiences I've ever accomplished. I had the opportunity to not only hike in these magnificent mountains, but I got to take over 180 youth along with me and introduce some to hiking for the very first time.

We tried to connect with people in neighboring communities and in unique ways such as art, music, and dance. We had the opportunity to create an immersive art experience at the gateway hub for air travel at McGhee-Tyson Airport to introduce travelers to the amazing National Park units within a couple hours drive of the airport.

In 2016, we also poured resources back into the park by completing a couple of flagship projects that allow longterm care of our natural and cultural resources. We completed the construction of the $4.2 million Collections Preservation Center made possible through a significant partnership contribution of $1.9 million by Friends of the Smokies and Great Smoky Mountains Association. This center provides space that now enables us to collectively care for over 418,000 artifacts and 1.3 million archival records from five parks. We can now better protect the current park collection and also inspire descendants of park inhabitants to entrust us to care for handed-down artifacts to help complete our shared history. We also had the opportunity to better preserve park natural resources through the legacy work of the Trails Forever project on Alum Cave Trail. This remarkable trail restoration actively engaged volunteers and youth interns, while also creating a sustainable, durable trail surface leading to one of the park's most iconic locations at Mt. Le Conte.

We are grateful for the investment of time that people shared with the park in 2016. When we experienced the fire storm on November 28, our supporters came to our aid in a remarkable manner through their kind words and donations. We simply cannot operate the park without your support and we thank you for your ongoing stewardship.

Thank you,
Cassius M. Cash

Do you ever think about what East Tennessee or Western North Carolina would look like without Great Smoky Mountains National Park? I do, every time I hike a trail, enjoy a view, I think about how much I owe to the men and women who had the presence-of-mind and vision to create this park. I am so grateful for how hard they worked, giving their time, money and precious resources to ensure the Smokies would be protected and preserved. Protected and preserved all so we could enjoy the same beauty as they did. I believe we owe them a huge debt of gratitude, and it is a debt we need to repay. Pay it just as they did, giving our time, our money and our precious resources to ensure that future generations can enjoy this park in the same way. Our ancestors protected this park in hopes that we would pick up the torch and ensure the these trails would be hiked, these homesteads would be visited and these views would be enjoyed for generations to come. – Meridith Elliott Powell, Asheville, Friends of the Smokies Board of Directors

Thanks to the photographer

Our 2016 photos were taken by our own Office/Special Projects Assistant, Kenna McCully.

"I have grown up with a camera in my hand - first with disposable cameras and then with a film camera passed down from my Uncle and then finally to a DSLR. There is something sacred to me in capturing a moment in time that will never exist again. I find peace sitting on a boulder in the middle of a river, standing in a field of elk, or watching the sun rise over the mountains waiting for the right moment to press down on the shutter-release button. I hope that others may find peace too by viewing these captured moments in time."

THE 1934 SOCIETY

Visionary leaders recognized the extraordinary features of the Smoky Mountains and championed the movement to create Great Smoky Mountains National Park in 1934. Today, Friends of the Smokies honors the distinguished group of donors who, year after year, help protect, preserve, and enhance this national treasure that belongs to us all. We invite you to join today!

*Names that appear in the list below along with two asterisks (**) are also recognized as Charter Members of Friends of Great Smoky Mountains National Park who helped found the organization nearly 25 years ago. Society members listed here have made cumulative direct donations totaling $1,000 or more, unrelated to special events tickets/purchases or endowments.*

The following endowments were established through the generosity of outstanding champions of Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

As of December 31, 2016 the endowment balances were as follow:

Trails Forever Endowment .....	$ 5,228,305
- Tom Cronan Pathfinder Fund
- Margaret Stevenson Fund
Kathryn McNeil Educational Endowment .....	$ 1,216,405
Elaine Gibson Endowment .....	$ 1,612,253

The board of directors and staff of Friends of the Smokies sincerely thank Lindsay Young and the Aslan Foundation of Knoxville for the $2.3 million challenge grant which created the Trails Forever Endowment starting in 2008. The match was accomplished with the help of the friends and family members of Tom Cronan and Margaret Stevenson and many others who gave with the vision of revitalizing trails like Alum Cave, Forney Ridge, Chimney Tops, and Rainbow Falls.

Kathryn McNeil was a founding board member of Friends of the Smokies. Shortly before her passing, she challenged Friends of the Smokies to match a new $600,000 gift, creating an endowment to fund a full-time, year round Parks as Classrooms Resource Education Ranger position. In 2000, she and Voit Gilmore donated their mountain home and 535 acre property to Great Smoky Mountains National Park, which today is known as the Appalachian Highlands Science Learning Center at Purchase Knob. It is there where the endowment-funded ranger position will serve.

Upon Elaine Gibson's passing, Great Smoky Mountains National Park's leadership team learned of her bequest to help take care of our park's greatest needs.

Contributions to Friends of the Smokies funded the following projects and programs from January 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016

WILDLIFE, WONDERS & WILDERNESS – RESOURCE MANAGEMENT & SCIENCE

Cades Cove Prescribed Fire Treatment for Field Management.....$ 9,000

These funds enabled crews to apply prescribed fire treatments to restore native meadow habitats for plants and wildlife. Prescribed fire treatments are included in the overall effort to maintain the historic, open field appearance throughout Cades Cove.

Collections Preservation Center Maintenance & Utilities ..... $ 46,250

The 14,000 square-foot facility space properly preserves 418,000+ artifacts and 1.3 million archival records documenting the history of Great Smoky Mountains National Park and four other NPS areas in East Tennessee including Andrew Johnson National Historic Site, Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area, Cumberland Gap National Historical Park, and Obed Wild and Scenic River.

Maintain Protection of Fraser Firs at Purchase Knob.....$ 2,483

Since 1962, the balsam woolly adelgid, an exotic predatory European insect, has killed 91% of the Park's naturally-occurring stands of high-elevation Fraser firs. The Park and the University of Tennessee planted 600 seedlings at the Appalachian Highlands Science Learning Center at Purchase Knob in 1995. While some of these trees have been attacked by the balsam woolly adelgid, they are treated annually with sprays and pesticides to preserve samples of the trees' genetic material, which is important for species preservation.

Reduce Backcountry Bear Problems with Food Storage Cable Systems.....$ 4,000

Each backcountry campsite and shelter has a pulley and cable system which campers are required to use to hoist their food and packs out of the reach of bears for the increased safety of both visitors and bears. Each year a number of these systems are damaged through use or by falling trees and must be replaced.

Public Safety Treatment of Ash Trees and Education Outreach .....$ 5,500

Emerald Ash Borer (EAB), a non-native wood boring beetle that feeds on both species of ash trees in the park, has been confirmed along the Gatlinburg Trail, Greenbrier Road, Roaring Fork Motor Nature Trail, Little River Road, Cades Cove and along the northeast boundary of the park. As of June 2015, five counties in North Carolina were confirmed positive for EAB, but none border the park. These funds supported the systemic treatment of 150 ash trees in campgrounds, picnic and parking areas in Tennessee to prevent hazard tree danger.

2016 Park Needs Fulfilled

Support Appalachian Bear Rescue (ABR)..... $ 7,000

Each year a number of orphaned or injured Park bears are treated and housed in the nonprofit ABR center in Townsend until they can be released back into the Park.

Support Bear Management and Hog Reduction.....$ 24,000

Funded two (2) seasonal park staff to manage wildlife and public safety issues. Activities included working traffic jams resulting from bear sightings along park roadways, and reducing the population of wild hogs which are invasive, disease-carrying destroyers of the park's ecosystem.

Elk Management and Monitoring .....$ 15,700

Funds to purchase three (3) GPS collars for elk monitoring. GPS technology allows staff to easily track elk and maximize data gathered pertaining to their movements and habitat use. The North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission (NCWRC) currently has elk fitted with GPS radio collars to study how elk utilize public and private lands immediately outside of the park. Purchasing GPS radio collars compatible with the NCWRC study facilitates collaboration for a more robust study that enables better understanding of elk habitat use, model population survival, and reproduction rates.

Suppress Hemlock Woolly Adelgid Infestation ..... $ 18,000

Since 2003, Friends of the Smokies has had a leadership role in supporting the most ambitious program in the Southeast aimed at protecting hemlocks from the invasive and deadly hemlock woolly adelgid. The park is now a national leader on control efforts for this forest pest. To date, more than 280,000 individual hemlock trees have been hand-treated, and more than 5,000 acres of hemlock-dominated forest have been set aside as special conservation areas. Protection includes a combination of soap spraying in the front country, systemic pesticides in more remote areas and biological control. Since biological control began, the park has released over 570,000 predator beetles as part of the overall landscape control effort. Presently more trees are being treated via systemic treatments. Through monitoring, park staff has determined that a single systemic treatment that costs 15 cents per inch diameter can protect a tree for up to seven years.

Water Quality Monitoring.....$ 2,500

One of the park's biggest single resource issues is trying to improve water quality in North Carolina and Tennessee. All of the Park's watersheds have their headwaters deep within the protection of the Park far from any upstream point-source pollution, but due to the large amounts of air borne acid and mercury being deposited, and leaching out of soils, many of the Park's high elevation streams are too acidic to support brook trout. This project supports a long-term UT study that will help correlate changes (reductions) in acid being deposited with changes in water quality at a site on Noland Divide.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION – RESOURCE EDUCATION

Support Parks as Classrooms programs.....$ 121,489

Approximately 18,000 students every year in Tennessee and North Carolina receive curriculum-based environmental education opportunities through the Parks as Classroom program. These hands-on, ranger-led lessons utilizing the Park as an enormous outdoor classroom help foster a love for nature and inform the next generation of park supporters.

Park Liaison with Cherokee School.....$ 40,583

Funds a coordinator for an educational partnership between the Park and Cherokee Middle School. The coordinator develops, implements, and evaluates a planned curriculum used to educate children as to the cultural and natural resources of the Smokies.

Appalachian Highlands Science Learning Center Teacher Ranger Teacher.....$ 4,000

A local school teacher worked on the North Carolina side of the Smokies as part of the National Park Service (NPS) Teacher-Ranger-Teacher program. For 6-8 weeks during the summer, the teacher assisted with the operation of the Park’s popular high school intern program, delivered Junior Ranger presentations and developed a new lesson plan for the NPS Teacher-Ranger-Teacher website.

MYLES Summer Education Program.....$ 9,483

Partnership with Montreat College to provide education programs. Funds provided an AmeriCorps intern to work with the MYLES camp participants in the summer.

Expand Educational Outreach.....$ 11,700

Funds build science education programs to reach new audiences, integrate technology into programs, conduct teacher workshops and hire high school interns.

Elkmont Amphitheatre Rehabilitation.....$ 1,500

The amphitheater is in poor condition, and it attracts more than 3,000 visitors each year to interpretive programs. This funding began the process of replacing the projection booth at the rear of the amphitheater to reinstate the original, rear-projection design, and to enable secure seasonal storage of digital projection equipment. The screen will be replaced. Rotten benches will be painted and replaced; stonework on the stage will also be repointed and replaced.

Centennial Celebration Support.....$ 11,946

The year-long celebration of the National Park Service’s 100th Anniversary was celebrated in Great Smoky Mountains National Park through a number of outreach and community events, including the Hike 100 program organized by Superintendent Cassius Cash.

2016 Park Needs Fulfilled

Promoting Inner City Park Stewards through Education Programs.....$ 49,000

These funds support part of the Department of Interior’s ambitious youth initiative to engage and employ the next generation through America’s Great Outdoors, the NPS, and the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. This partnership provides an opportunity to develop joint field trips and programs that encourage outdoor recreation, citizen stewardship, and healthy lifestyles.

STEM Initiatives for Educating Inner City and Underserved Students ..... $ 21,892

This program incorporates teacher workshops, Teachers in Park, and development of park education materials for the classroom.

PARKWIDE VOLUNTEERS-IN-PARKS PROGRAM

---

VIP Recognition Awards Program ..... $ 1,501

Each year over 2,500 individuals contribute over 150,000 hours of volunteer service with VIP’s supporting virtually all phases of park operations. These funds provide recognition to year-round volunteers in the form of awards such as plaques, belt buckles, and certificates.

Artist in Residence Program.....$ 4,255

Artists have played important part in the formation and establishment of our park. Early writers, photographers, painters, and musicians drew inspiration from these mountains and helped translate their purpose as a place of pleasure and preservation. An Artist-in-Residence supports the opportunity for an artist to live in the park and produce original works of art. In exchange, the artist agrees to donate a piece of work to the park.

PROTECT HISTORIC PLACES – FACILITIES MANAGEMENT

---

Elijah Oliver Springhouse Rehabilitation ..... $ 10,000

Rehabilitation of the Elijah Oliver Springhouse in Cades Cove including repairing stone footings, replacing logs as needed, and re-roofing the structure.

Palmer House Rehabilitation.....$ 35,000

Ongoing rehabilitation of the Palmer House including repairing gutters, replacing siding as needed, repairing mortar joints in the chimney, glazing and painting windows/doors, painting the exterior, and repairing inside flooring. In addition, bat guano was removed by a contractor and a barrier was installed to exclude bats from the attic.

Hiram Caldwell House Bat Guano Removal.....$ 26,800

These funds supported bat guano removal. A contractor removed the guano and installed a barrier to exclude bats from the attic.

Trails Forever Rehabilitation of Rainbow Falls Trail (Phase 1) .....$ 50,000
Initial funding allocation to support the trail rehabilitation along one of the most heavily-travelled trails in the Smokies. Includes funding for the Park's Trails Forever Volunteer Coordinator, a position that facilitates engagement with volunteers of all ages in hands-on stewardship. This project will resolve the safety issues and make the trail more enjoyable to hike.

Visitor Amenities

Funding from Friends of the Smokies maintains vault toilets in these popular areas for visitor convenience.

Cataloochee Visitor Amenities ..... $ 17,100

Roaring Fork Visitor Amenities ..... $ 14,900

Chimney Restoration in Historic Structures ..... $ 27,700

Preserving the Park's irreplaceable historic resources has been a priority for Friends of the Smokies' members since 1993. The Park's historic preservation staff repointed chimneys and fireplaces in six (6) structures, including the Walker Sisters cabin, John Ownby Cabin, Cook Cabin, Elijah Oliver cabin, Tipton Oliver Cabin, and the Oconaluftee Administration Building. Work included relaying loose stones and removing and replacing failed mortar using historically accurate methods and materials.

Trails Forever Rehabilitation of Alum Cave Trail (Phase 2) .....$ 184,100

In 2016 the Trails Forever crew completed the two-year improvement of Alum Cave Trail.

IMPROVE VISITOR EXPERIENCE – RESOURCE & VISITOR PROTECTION

Support for the Volunteer Elk Bugle Corps ..... $ 19,101

During the peak visitation periods for elk-viewing in the Cataloochee area of the park, a team of dedicated volunteers provides interpretive and safety information to park visitors to enhance their viewing experience while helping to preserve the natural behavior patterns of the elk herd.

Reduce Ginseng Poaching through Marking Ginseng Roots ..... $ 3,888

These funds support an annual ginseng marking blitz. Thousands of ginseng roots have been marked through this program over the years. Market demands place heavy pressure on this resource from illegal harvesters who poach for profit. This is a very cost-effective way to assist in the deterrence and detection of commercial poaching of this resource at risk.

2016 Park Needs Fulfilled

Privy Supply/Mulch Delivery ..... $ 1,560
Helicopter delivery of mulch and other supplies for the LeConte and Pecks Corner backcountry shelter privies, both of which have proven to be extremely difficult to keep adequately supplied through volunteer efforts alone due to their remote locations and high visitor use.

Support for the Volunteer Roadside Assistance Program ..... $ 4,269
The Smokies recruits a series of retired law enforcement officers and their spouses to patrol Newfound Gap Road and Cades Cove, providing directions and visitor information, responding to disabled vehicles and lock-outs, and assisting with motor vehicle accidents and bear-related traffic jams. Their presence has substantially freed up the commissioned law enforcement rangers in the park, enabling them to respond more quickly to more serious law enforcement incidents.

Support Appalachian Trail Ridgerunner Program ..... $ 40,720
Each year the Park recruits a series of individuals who provide a presence on the Appalachian Trail (A.T.) from March through October. They provide visitor information, do trail maintenance, pack out litter, maintain composting privies, report on the condition of the trail and the shelters, report emergencies and advise hikers on food storage and other regulations, and relay real-time information regarding possible problem bears. Their presence on the A.T. for over 15 years has made a huge difference in the Park's ability to manage the A.T.
